

The Golden Thread of Destiny

Everyone has gifts to give
Talents to share
And a destiny to live
In some people this is more obvious than others
Yet obvious or not
It remains true
That all beings have the divine spark within
Everyone is born with love to share
Blessings to bestow
And the golden thread of their destiny
To guide them

What if you were born in adverse circumstances?
Situations of oppression and disadvantage
Even in dealing with adversity
Contained within is divinity and wholeness
A way to give
To live with and beyond limitations
And shine forth in some way

Affirmative prayer helps
I am aware of and constantly
Manifesting my true destiny now
I grow in wisdom daily
My hidden splendor is unveiled
The golden thread of my destiny
Is in my hands

Thank you God

Action
